Important Pole Mounting Information

Several of my bird feeders, bird houses and butterfly houses require that they be mounted on a pole or may be optionally mounted on a pole. I no longer include the 1 ¼" mounting flange as many people preferred other options and they only added cost to shipping.

If you wish to mount your house or feeder on a pole, you have the following options available to you.

1. You can supply your own mounting option if you wish to purchase the materials separately or already have a pole mounted. If you order a house or feeder with the pole mounting option, but do not specify a mounting pole, the bottom of the feeder or house will be flat and the center marked.
2. You can order a 1 ¼" pipe flange that I will mount on the bottom for you. Upon receiving the house or feeder you will have to go to your local hardware store and purchase a 1 ¼" threaded galvanized pipe. The pipe should be at least 6 foot long so that you can anchor at least 1' to 1 ½' into the ground. The house or feeder should screw right on to the top of the pipe. Note the pipe will probably cost you around $15 - $20 depending on local pricing.
3. You can purchase one of our complete mounting kits. Either the heavy duty pole for the feeders or, the light duty pole which will accommodate most of the houses. Note: if you purchase one of the pole kits, I will mount the top adapter on the house or feeder for you.
